

Our Response to Stay-at-Home order

March 2020

We hope this message finds you and your family well. Wisconsin Gov. Tony Evers has issued a stay-at-home order to Wisconsin residents to fend off the coronavirus outbreak that is ravaging populations worldwide. The governor's order will require nearly all workers in our state to work remotely and goes into effect on Wednesday March 25, 2020 at 8 AM and last 30 days.

During this time of heightened concern, we want to reiterate the steps outlined in our March 16th newsletter that will ensure you'll continue to receive uninterrupted service from McCarthy Grittinger Financial Group.

Our team continues to stand ready to help you and we hope you'll lean on us during these turbulent times. We will do everything we can to minimize any service disruption as the coronavirus situation evolves.

Service and Business Continuity: We prepare for situations like this through our robust business continuity and disaster recovery planning. Each of our associates has secure and convenient remote access. This means that we are prepared to continue to provide you service with minimal impact.

Accessibility to your Advisor: Even though our physical office is closed, you can reach your advisor by emailing him/her directly and setting up a time to talk.

Scott D. Grittinger, CFP®	scottg@mgfin.com
Matthew T. Miler, CPA, CFP®	mattm@mgfin.com
Jacqueline A. Schneider, CFP®	jackies@mgfin.com
Amy L. Finley, CFP®	afinley@mgfin.com
Alicia A. Nordwig, CFP® AAMS®	alician@mgfin.com
Jacob T. Hornak	jacobh@mgfin.com
Maggie L. Mayer	mmayer@mgfin.com

We are grateful to be working with clients like you during times like this and we are here to help wherever we can. Please do not hesitate to contact your advisor with any questions you may have or if you just want to talk. We look forward to working through these challenging times with you.